

Molymet's community management focuses on building relationships of trust and respect towards the interests of the communities of which the company is a part, taking into account their values and culture. It promotes actions and programs that aim at local development, involving the community itself in the development of proposals aimed at satisfying their interests and growth needs.

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a large, stylized 'A' followed by a smaller 'G' and a final flourish.

John Graell M.

CEO