

MolyMet is a company specialized in the processing of molybdenum and other metals. It declares its commitment to apply preventive measures to control and minimize the environmental impact generated by its operations, in accordance with current environmental legislation and voluntarily signed agreements.

The Company will maintain an Environmental Management System, based on continuous improvement techniques, to guarantee the care of the environment during its current operations and future investment projects.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "John Graell M.", written in a cursive style.

John Graell M.

CEO